The Mikado heads to the stage....

The picture shows Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner, and his three wards - (clockwise from left) Mariah Macfarlane as Pitti-Sing, 'Zeeke' Hamilton as Ko-Ko, Kim Moffit as Yum-Yum and Fiona Douglas as Peep-Bo.

Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner, plans to marry Yum-Yum, his ward. Unfortunately for him, Yum-Yum has fallen in love with Nanki-Poo, a wandering minstrel, who it turns out is not only the son of the Mikado, but also promised to marry someone else. Nanki-Poo and Yum-Yum have to find a way to avoid dying of love. There are lots of laughs and music as the adventure unfolds. It seems it all comes down to picking the right candidate – and having a list never hurts.

RCMPI kicks off its 30th anniversary season with its spring show – The Mikado – the most popular of the Gilbert and Sullivan comic operettas. The show opens on Thursday evening, April 24th with shows on Friday and Saturday evening and Saturday and Sunday afternoon.
